

Copernicus Workshop Application

11-13 September 2017, Longyearbyen

Please return the completed form via email to the SIOS remote sensing service:

remotesensing@sios-svalbard.org

The application deadline is 21 July 2017. Please note that the number of participants is limited to 20 persons. Applications will be evaluated competitively. Researchers from SIOS member institutions may apply for financial support towards accommodation in Longyearbyen. Please include such a request in your statement.

Contact information

Name:

Email:

Address:

Work details

Affiliation:

Employment status:

Statement and CV

Please send us a CV that demonstrates your scientific career and attach a short statement (max. 500 words) on why you would like to attend this workshop, how it is relevant to your research and how it will further your career. If your institute is a SIOS member, please also include details on how this workshop will help you contribute to SIOS in the future.